K-6 Math Standards: Helping Students and Teachers Meet High Expectations

Key Note:

Dr. Efrain Mercado: ASCD Lead Strategist for the Common Core Standards

Dr. Mercado has significant experience partnering with urban school districts to help students achieve College and Career Readiness through his previous work with ACT, Inc. He also brings extensive test preparation experience from his previous roles as a master tutor/teacher for the Princeton Review and as the president and founder of Premier Prep, a test preparation and college admission counseling company. In his new role as the Lead Strategist for the Common Core State Standards, Dr. Mercado will engage with states and districts to help identify, develop, and disseminate practical tools and resources for educators to use in implementing the common core state standards at the local level.

Expert Presenters:

- Dr. Betz Frederick: ASCD Program Development Consultant
- Dr. Frederic Skoglund: co-author of Student Success: How to Make it Happen.
- Mr. Eric Brooks: Arizona Department of Education, Education Program Specialist
- Ms. Suzi Mast: Arizona Department of Education, Mathematics/Science Education Program Specialist

Participants will learn more about new math standards along with tried and true techniques for effectively implementing standards within the K-6 classroom environment. Separate breakout sessions will be held for teachers and administrators.
